

Meet the SDGVA Board of Directors

“Teamwork is the ability to work together toward a common vision. The ability to direct individual accomplishments toward organizational objectives. It is the fuel that allows common people to attain uncommon results.” -Andrew Carnegie

Composition of the Board of Directors:

The number of members on the SDGVA Board of Directors shall be at least five (5) but no more than seven (7). SDGVA will include at one (1) parent or legal guardian of SDGVA students. It is SDGVA's goal to create a diverse board with representation in the areas of education, business, legal and/or fiscal management. Experience in the charter community is preferred but not required. Training is provided for all Board of Directors.

Board of Directors Members

Eva Pineda (Community Member) eva.pineda@sdgva.net

Eva Pineda was a bilingual community instructor for first, fourth and sixth grades for Conafe in Mexico. She supported rural families with their community needs and was a founding family of San Diego Global Vision Academy in 2010. She was formerly of parent representative and is now a community member. Her current term will go through June 2022.

Matt Jawlik (Community Member, Chair) matt.jawlik@sdgva.net

Matt Jawlik is the Managing Director of Data and Analytics at the California Charter Schools Association. He directs all aspects of data, analytics, systems and related operations for the Association's portfolio of political, engagement and advocacy programs. He is a community member and the chair of the board. His current term goes through June 2023.

Jacob Ruth (Parent Representative) jacob.ruth@sdgva.net

Jacob Ruth currently serves as the Director of Instructional Leadership Services and Support at the Chula Vista Learning Community Charter School. CVLCC is a TK-12 charter school that focuses on bi-literacy, cultural development, social justice, and global perspectives. Before serving as the Director of CVLCC, Jacob was the Principal of Chula Vista Hills Elementary. He previously was a community member, but now has two children attending SDGVA and is one of our parent representatives. His current term goes through June 2023.

Elizabeth Lonnecker (Community Member) elizabeth.lonnecker@sdgva.net

Elizabeth Lonnecker is currently a secondary educator at Hoover High School. She has over 25 years of experience in education and has taught at the following sites: San Diego High-Scitech, Wilson Middle, Bret Hard Middle in Oakland and Lycee de Rosso in Mauritania. As a community member her term will end in 2022.

Britney Miller (Parent Representative) britney.miller@sdgva.net

Britney Miller is a Site Support Specialist for Cobham Advanced Electronic Solutions and a former Navy Information System Technician. She brings a wealth of expertise about system administration and information technology as well as an exceptional parent perspective. She will be serving on the board through June 2022.